

Profiles of Directors

Dr. David Lowe - Chairman

Dr. Lowe served formerly as Chairman of the Agricultural Development Corporation. He brings to the Jamaica Dairy Development Board considerable local and international experience in the fields of Business Strategy Development and Financial Management.

Dr. Keith Amiel – Vice- Chairman

Dr. Amiel is Corporate Manager of the Caribbean Broilers Group of Companies and has held several leading positions in the Caribbean Agri-Business Association. A Veterinarian by profession, he has had a long association with the Jamaican cattle sector.

Mr. Robin Crum Ewing

Mr. Crum Ewing is currently President of the Beef and Dairy Producers Association of Jamaica (BDPAJ) as well as Chairman of the Eastern Livestock Development Association (ELDA), a regional grouping of livestock producers from the parishes of St. Mary, Portland and St. Thomas. A practicing pure-breeder of beef cattle at Green Castle Estate in Annatto Bay, St. Mary, he is also the serving President of the Jamaica Brahman Cattle Breeders' Society.

Mrs. Mavis Campbell

Mrs. Campbell recently retired from the position of International Trade Specialist in the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries. She is expected to provide invaluable guidance to the Board in development of trade policies for the Dairy Sector.

Mr. Byron Thompson

Mr. Thompson is Managing Director of Seprod Ltd., a local Agri-business conglomerate which includes within its portfolio, the Serge Island Dairy Farm and Processing complex located in Seaforth, St. Thomas. A graduate of the Jamaica School of Agriculture, Mr. Thompson's successful tenure at the leadership of the Seprod Group is expected to inure the Board with a keener appreciation of the dairy business.

Dr. Paul Cadogan

Dr. Cadogan has operated a private Veterinary practice in the parish of Clarendon for more than 15 years. He has for many years been active in the leadership of the Jamaica Veterinary Association and is currently the serving Secretary.

Ambassador Douglas Saunders, Cabinet Secretary, Office of the Cabinet

Dr. Pauline Knight, Director General (Acting) Planning Institute of Jamaica

Hope Gardens, Kingston 6, Tel# 977-1632, Fax# 977-9230

Mr. Reginald Budhan, Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Industry Investment and Commerce

Mr. Donovan Stanberry, Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries

Dr. Paul Jennings, Chief Executive Officer, Jamaica Dairy Development Board